

Rubrix-A Pricing Policy

Last Updated: March 1, 2026

1. Annual Subscription

Rubrix-A operates on a prepaid annual subscription model. By purchasing a subscription, the user gains access to the Rubrix-A platform for one (1) year from the date of purchase.

- Standard Annual Rate: MUR900 per year.
- Billing: The full amount is charged upfront at the time of subscription activation.

2. Launch Promotion

To celebrate the release of Rubrix-A, an early subscriber discount is available.

- Promotional Price: MUR600 per year.
- Eligibility Period: This promotional pricing applies to all annual subscriptions purchased on or before March 31, 2026.

3. Usage & Credit Policy

Rubrix-A provides essay grading and feedback based on a monthly credit allocation.

- Monthly Allowance: Subscribers are entitled to grade and receive feedback on up to 5 essays per calendar month.
- Definition of Calendar Month: For the purpose of this policy, a "calendar month" is defined as the period from the first day to the last day of a specific month (e.g., January 1st to January 31st).
- Reset Schedule: The essay count resets to zero on the first day of every new calendar month.

Important Note on Partial Months: If a subscription is purchased mid-month (e.g., January 15th), the subscriber is entitled to the full 5-essay allowance for the remainder of that specific calendar month. The allowance will reset to 5 fresh credits on February 1st.

4. "No Rollover" Rule

To ensure fair usage and system stability, Rubrix-A enforces a strict forfeiture policy regarding unused credits.

- Forfeiture of Credits: Any of the 5 essay credits not utilized by the last day of the calendar month are immediately forfeited.
- No Rollover: Unused credits do not roll over to the following month. Credits cannot be accumulated, banked, or transferred to other users.
